

Bermuda, Canada & New England Facts

Bermuda facts

- 181 - islands and islets. Bermuda may seem like one island but it is actually made up of 181 different islands, islets and rock, and with three nights in Bermuda while on Celebrity Summit's 7-night Bermuda cruise, there's plenty of time to explore
- 34 sandy beaches and 75 miles of coastline: Take your pick from Bermuda's beautiful beaches - some have pink sand, especially those found on the South Shore. The sand contains pink flecks that are the remains of a tiny organism known as red foam. These flecks, along with crushed corals and shells, get mixed with the sand and create a wonderful pink hue
- 1621 - the year St Georges, a UNESCO World Heritage site, was founded. It is the oldest continuously inhabited town of English origin in the western hemisphere
- 650 - the number of species of fish that live in and around Bermuda's reefs
- 90 - different Forts in Bermuda, dating back to 1612
- 19 miles - the length of the channel that Celebrity Summit must navigate everyday that she arrives and departs Bermuda
- 25 years since Celebrity Cruises purpose built the Celebrity Horizon for voyages to Bermuda
