

Modern LuXury

For the modern explorer.

Celebrity's Galapagos vacations are truly all inclusive. Because who really wants to carry a wallet in their swimsuit?

We've thought of almost everything your clients could need to relax, enjoy, and explore the legendary Galapagos Islands. From 5-star accommodations in Quito and privately chartered, luxury air transfers (to and from their ship) to expertly guided tours and intimate excursions (two a day) that cover all there is to see and do in the most diversely unique chain of islands in the world—it's all included. Meals? Check. Drinks? Absolutely. Tips? We've got it covered. Plus, all the gear they'll need, like snorkeling equipment, wet suits, binoculars, and more. Like we said, it's all-inclusive.

Because we believe every moment of your vacation should be measured by just how far it takes you from the ordinary.

That's modern luxury.SM
