

Evening Chic

Formal night gets a modern luxury reboot.

Evening Chic Overview

What is Evening Chic?

We are evolving the traditional cruise ship formal night. Now, on up to two nights on every cruise, Evening Chic activities are being introduced, and Evening Chic attire is replacing Formal attire. While dressier than Smart Casual, Evening Chic is intended to be less dressy than Formal attire. All other nights of the cruise will feature Smart Casual attire.

Evening Attire

Evenings onboard Celebrity feature two types of attire: Evening Chic and Smart Casual.

Evening Chic is your night to shine in your vacation best, and will be featured once on cruises 6 nights or shorter and twice on cruises 7 nights or longer.

Women should feel comfortable wearing:

- A cocktail dress
- Skirt, pants or designer jeans with an elegant top

Smart Casual attire can be enjoyed every other night of your cruise.

Women should feel comfortable wearing:

- Skirt, pants or jeans with a casual top

Specialty Restaurants (Including Luminae for our Suite Class guests and Blu for our AquaClass® Guests)

The dress code in Celebrity's Specialty Restaurants is Smart Casual for every night of your cruise. Evening Chic attire is only required in the main dining room on your "Evening Chic nights."

Note: T-shirts, swimsuits, robes, bare feet, tank tops, baseball caps and pool wear are not allowed in the main restaurant or specialty restaurant at any time. Shorts and flip-flops are not allowed in the evening hours. The dress code will be enforced at all restaurants. And guests are asked to follow the Smart Casual dress code in the Celebrity Theater for all evening performances.
